Still Can't Understand Why Sergeant York Got All the Credit for Winning: V.
NOVEMBER 11. 1929

OFFICIAL Washington States in Entitled to View That York
Did a Lot.

By ROBERT VALLERY

"I was the guy, " says ex-Private George W. Wills who lives with the hero for two years in a little Denver home and the city kamps to soak Philadelphia and has a job as a teamster, driving a feed wagon from a.m. to p.m. every day except Sunday.

Mr. Wills, a small man, and what they are doing today.

"It was the thing, " he claims, "I'had been kampaed, the pers, I'm camped, and I'm not going to come through hell with Sergeant York that "Two 40-watt Edison lamps ready selected

"In this handy kit

$1.35

"Keep lamps on hand. Then when one goes "dark," you won't have to rob some other light socket to replace it.

With this handy household kit, you'll always have the size you want.
It contains three 40-watt lamp bulbs that you can use in the living room, hall or for your reading lamp.
There's one 100-watt lamp bulb that's suitable for a reading lamp or for the dining room and kitchen. Two 40-watt lamp bulbs complete the kit, and those are correct for bedroom or hall.

All use the new type, inside-bent Edison Mandals. They're non-glare-so easy on your eyes. Never before have lamp bulbs been so efficient, so cheap. This handy kit costs but $1.35. Phone for it now—we gladly deliver.
Pay with your light bill.
