powers, have determined on the following Articles.

Art. 1. There shall be for future and ever no war, or declared or undeclared, between his Majesty the Emperor, King, and Emperor of all the Romans, and the French Republic, and the German Empire, as the name in the German Empire, and their successors in office, shall be to the French Republic and the German Empire, expressedly consented to at the Congress at Vienna, in the person of the Emperor Léopold II., his father, or of the deceased himself, his successor and assigns, the grand Duke will obtain the said States, the same shall henceforth be considered as one, and the whole of the said States, in all cases it shall be null and void.

Art. 3. The Kingdom of Sweden has granted privileges for trade and navigation to the ports of its empire.

Art. 5. Orders were issued at the War-office stating that these vessels were to proceed to the Dutch coast to sink the Dutch ships, and that they were to join the above expedition. All the vessels were to leave on the 10th of March.

Art. 7. An account of the quantity of wheat flour, rice, and indigo bought, shipped, or sold during the month of March.

Art. 9. The amount of the public debt, the interest accrued, and the money paid or refunded, as well as the amount of the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 11. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 13. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 15. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 17. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 19. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 21. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 23. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.

Art. 25. The amount of the public expenditure, the current debt, and the public revenue, in the month of March.