FOR SALE,

By the subscriber, the house lately occupied by himself, at Catskill Landing, being 40 by 43 feet in size, whereof part is laid out in a convenient store 43 by 18 feet, the remainder in commodious rooms for use of a family, together with a well of the best water in town and half an acre of land with other improvements thereon—the house and lot wherein David Morgan now lives—a water lot near the subscriber's house, containing 58 feet on the main street and water, whereon is a dock sufficient for a vessel of one hundred and fifty tons burthen—Also, eight building lots, containing 60 by 264 feet, commodiously situated on the turnpike road, on Souler's plains—Also, one good wood lot, within two miles of said Landing, containing five or six acres—Also, sixty acres of good land, in the town of Harpersfield, in Delaware county, whereon is an improvement of about twenty-five acres, in a good neighborhood, near a church and mills, &c. The whole of which will be sold on reasonable terms for part payment and the remainder by instalments as shall be agreed upon by the purchaser, and an indisputable title will be given, for all or any part of the above property, by the subscriber.

BENJAMIN VAN ORDEN.

Catskill, November 3, 1801.

For sale, on very reasonable terms,

A good FARM, of 125 acres of good Land, situated in the town of Freehold, in the society of Greenfield, two miles south of the Meeting-house, fifteen miles west of the North river; on the premises are a good House, Barn and one eighth of a Sawmill, and an orchard containing 200 trees. The farm is well watered and in equal proportions of meadow, plowland and timber, such as, white pine, oak and chestnut; 50 acres of the above lands are under good improvement.

GAD CHAMBERLIN.

Oct. 30, 1801.

To Owners and Masters of Vessels.

The subscribers give notice to owners and masters of vessels, that they have on hand a good stock of materials for repairing and re-building old vessels—they have captains and every thing in order for heaving down, or a convenient place to lay vessels on shore, as circumstances, and the pleasure of the owners may require. As they are determined to pay proper attention to the business, and as it is generally known that there can be no better harbor for laying up vessels than what the creek in this town affords—it is presumed that masters and owners of vessels requiring repair, will find their account in applying where they can be so well accommodated, by the public's humble servants.

D. JOHNSON.
A. MERRICK.

Catskill, Nov. 9, 1801.

CREDIT and PUNCTUALITY.

Credit is the Life of trade—Punctuality, the support of Credit.

THE subscribers having taken a large share of Credit, and being destitute of other means to be punctual, earnestly solicit those indebted to them to call and settle their accounts.—A compliance will save cost and much oblige their humble servants.
