Elsie Whitney Married to
Carroll A. Edsall
Of Brooklyn

The ceremony was followed by a reception at Dibble's Farm Tavern, Utica, where 700 guests were received. The residents of Utica, Miss Mary Carroll and Mrs. John Buckley, Utica, and Miss Kathryn Shepherd, Utica, were among the bridesmaids. The wedding was a grand event, with decorations throughout the rooms. Mrs. John Buckley entertained the bridal party at his home in Utica. They will leave within a week or two, with the bride's brother, Richard Best, to begin their honeymoon.

Miss Wiltman Honor Guest
At Tea

Mrs. M. E. Wiltman, 42 Beacon St., Utica, entertained a luncheon club at the Hotel Utica on Wednesday. The bride, Miss Wiltman, was the guest of honor at the luncheon.

Diminutive Gemmed
Watches Coming Into Vogue

Small and brilliant are the latest models of watches coming into the market. The cases are made of steel and the dials are set with gemstones. The watches are very popular with young people.

Will Entertain
Club Study Class

Mrs. Margaret Best of Ithaca will entertain a study club at her home on Wednesday, Aug. 15. The topic of the study will be the history of the United States.

Entertains for
Guest from Providence

Mrs. S. C. McNamara, 124 Erie St., Utica, on Monday entertained Mrs. Mary Fisher, 200 Water St., Providence, R.I., who was a guest of the society. Mrs. Fisher is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island.

Midsummer Bride

The marriage of Miss Elsie Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitney, 41 Otsego St., Utica, was announced at a bridge tea given by the society for Mrs. Whitney. The bridal party was seated at a horsehair table, and the reception was enjoyed by the younger guests. Harry Whitney, Utica, will be the bridegroom.

Margaret Best of Ithaca
Bride in Picturesque
Church Ceremony

The bride, Margaret Best, 20, of Ithaca, was married to George Hathaway, 22, of Rochester, N.Y., at the First Presbyterian Church in Utica. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John P. Whitney, the bride's father. The bride's dress was designed by Miss H. M. Whitney, the bride's sister. The wedding was a beautiful event, with the bride wearing a gown of Patou grey, trimmed with real lace, and a corsage of pink Calla lilies. The bridal party was seated at a horseshoe table, and the reception was enjoyed by the younger guests.