VAUDEVILLE STAGE
A GIFTED COMPANY.

Koster and Bial's.
Fannie Leeke, the well-known English comedienne, made her début at Koster and Bial's on Monday, and the audience, no doubt, received adequate proof of her talent in the only way it can be well understood. She has a nice voice, and her delivery is excellent.

Feisal Palace.
Marie Dressler continues her successful engagement, singing new songs with her customary grace and charm. Her voice is one of the purest in the theatre, and her delivery of her songs is always charming. Miss Dressler is a first-rate singer, and her appearance in this one is sure to please the audience.

Water and Fisher's Broadway Music Hall.
Low Duval and Otho Hardy, the well-known vaudevillians, are now playing at Water and Fisher's. Their act is a fine one, and they have many hits.

Saratoga.
Theva was the opening act, and it was a great success. Theva is a first-rate comedian, and his act was a hit from the start.

The Mirror.
To the Editor of The Dramatic Mirror:
...I should like to see more of this kind of writing. She is a poetess of note, and some of her work is worth reading. The productions reduce the greatest credit on Mr. Fish and his associates. Miss Bennett and Mr. Fish have a fine gift of adapting songs, and their work is in a very emphatic way the best of the season. Fish and his boys are on the right track.

TONY PASTOR'S.—Gus Williams and his funny men continue their popular engagement at Tony Pastor's. Mr. Williams' piano solo, with the fiddle under his arm, is sure to please the audience. The act is well arranged, and the musicians are excellent.

N. L. A. M'CULLAN.
New York, Feb. 17, 1897.

THE VAUDEVILLE BENEFIT FOR THE FUND.
Letters continue to come in regarding the proposed Actors' Benevolent Fund. We have been informed that numerous and hearty encores. His songs and sayings are new and bright. Master Witter J. launches his beamed sun, and the music is by Edward Hargraves.

THE CHERUBS AND MISS DRORRILL.
The Chubby Sisters were a constant source of amusement to the audience. They are very clever, and their act was a hit from the start. The Chubby Sisters are well known for their comic turns, and their act was a hit from the start.

THE BEARING OF LIFE.
The bearing of life is a very important subject, and it is well worth considering. The bearing of life is a very important subject, and it is well worth considering.

ACTORS FOR GATTINNAT.
Elaborate preparations are being made for the benefit of the Actors' Fund. A grand benefit will be held in New York on Monday evening. The benefit will be given in memory of Miss Gattinna, who died recently.

M. S. J. ROCKS.
New York, March 1, 1897.

THE MIRROR.
To the Editor of The Dramatic Mirror:
...I should like to see more of this kind of writing. She is a poetess of note, and some of her work is worth reading. The productions reduce the greatest credit on Mr. Fish and his associates. Miss Bennett and Mr. Fish have a fine gift of adapting songs, and their work is in a very emphatic way the best of the season. Fish and his boys are on the right track.