Susan B. Anthony!" She was walking on a hot July day, with a flag in her hand and a band of songs on her head. She was going down the street to meet her neighbors. She had enrolled on the list of members of the women's rights movement. She knew that she would be recognized. She took this opportunity to remind them of the need for women's rights.

"I don't know what the cause of poor Marriage is. How did you begin?

SHERMAN,

"It's not the cause of your poor Marriage that happened to me. My husband was a great deal better than I thought he was. He was a good man and I loved him very much. I wasn't sure what was the cause of your poor Marriage until I heard you say what it was.

Miss Anthony,

"I can't understand it. I've been married for twenty years and I've never had a complaint. I've always been happy. I don't know what the cause of my poor Marriage is.
