Co-Operative Housing Proves Success in Bay Ridge; Twenty Plants Built or Purchased Within Five Years

Group of Sunset Park Residents Who Started Plan in 1917 With Erection of Two Tenant-Owned Apartments, Housing Thirty-two Families, Opens Way for Others—Enterprise Commended by Co-operative League of America and Bureau of Co-operative Associations of State Department of Farms and Markets—Monthly Payments Toward Mortgage Less Than Rental Charges.

In this group of plans and schemes for aid to the working classes, there has been born in Brooklyn a co-operative apartment movement, which promises to be of the utmost benefit to the citizens of Sunset Park, the district of the city which contains the largest number of foreign-born population in the city.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing. The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.

The movement has been started by a group of men who have been active in the work of housing the working classes in New York, and who have been working for a long time in the field of co-operative housing.