Amend District Chiefs Urge His Nomination By Democrats

A strong move was made today by the Democrats for the nomination of Mr. Burke for city president of New York. The action was taken in a convention of Democratic leaders held in the Municipal Building.

The following resolutions were adopted:

1. That Burke is the candidate of the Democratic party for city president.
2. That Burke is the candidate of the Democratic party for city councilman.
3. That Burke is the candidate of the Democratic party for comptroller.

The convention was called to order by W. J. Donovan, state chairman of the Democratic party, who said that the convention was called to order because of the need for a strong slate of candidates for the next election.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously.
