HALLERAN WANTS TO KEEP 2ND AVE. "I LINE TO PLAZA"

Acting Borough Head Is Not Optimistic City Will Agree To Plan

While the city council decided that the subway should pass through 2nd Ave. to the west side of the square and 14th Street, Mayor John H. F. Lamont, acting borough head, has been reported to have stated that it is a "bargain." He said he was not optimistic that the city would agree to the plan.

The mayor was quoted as saying that the plan was not the "only one" and that he did not know what the final decision would be. He added that he believed the city would agree to a plan that would be mutually satisfactory.

The subway plan was presented to the city council by the mayor and was approved by the council. The mayor had previously announced that he would present the plan to the city council.

The subway plan was estimated to cost $10 million and would provide a connection between the two sides of the square. The mayor said that the city would agree to the plan if it was mutually satisfactory.
