Celebrating Their ‘Happy Firsts’

1 PAROLED, 2 HELD IN CORONA FEUD

The Hendricks and the McCrory families were at the heart of a family feud that has been raging in Corona for the past year. The Hendricks, led by Frank Hendricks, and the McCrorys, led by John McCrory, have been feuding over a long-standing land dispute. The feud has escalated in recent months, leading to the recent arrest of two members of the Hendricks family, Frank and John Hendricks, on charges of assault and battery.

FLUSHING SCOUT MEETS OLD PAL

A scout named Peter Jones met up with an old pal in Flushing yesterday. The two had not seen each other in years, and the reunion was a touching moment for both of them.

HOSPITAL BEGINS SERVING TB CASES

The borough’s new tuberculosis hospital began serving patients yesterday. The hospital, located in Woodside, Queens, is the first of its kind in the city and is expected to serve thousands of patients each year.
