NEW MOVE TO AID B-W UNDER WAY

Officials of 6 Communities Settle On Tax Terms TO DRAFT PLEA

Judge Knox to Be Asked to Rescind Order for Shutdown

Officials of six municipalities who met recently to settle a dispute over the cost of a county police station agreed today to accept a one-year truce in the controversy.

Mayor Reilly has ordered the village council to consider the possibility of a settlement with the other municipalities who have been reimbursed for the cost of the police station.

The dispute has been going on for several years and has involved the cost of the police station.

Village Head 12 Times, Veteran In Heart Attack Victim

JAMES REILLY

Robert Reilly, 78, a veteran of World War II and a former mayor of Pelham, died today at his home here.

He had been in failing health for several years.

County Tax Table Drawn

Equation Rates for 1983 Differ Slightly From This Year's

WHITE PLAINS, Dec. 23—The county tax table for 1983 differs slightly from this year's table, according to the county treasurer.

First threat to sell property here

orphan

If automobiles hadn't become so dependent on electricity, there would have been no need for the extra holiday.

Believing that the extra holiday would have been a great help to the economy, the mayor has called a meeting with the state legislature to discuss the matter.

The meeting will be held on the condition that the mayor agrees to pay all expenses.

The mayor has also called for a statewide referendum on the issue.

Innkeeper Dies at 90

MURRAY, Dec. 23—Mr. Robert Reilly, 90, a former mayor of Pelham, died today at his home here.

He had been in failing health for several years.

ROBBEY MARS HOLIDAY SPIRIT

Mean Crafts Piller Toys and Christmas Gifts

Mr. Reilly, who served as mayor of Pelham from 1949 to 1953, was a Republican and a member of the state legislature.

Died of Heart Attack

Mr. Reilly, who had been mayor of Pelham from 1949 to 1953, died of a heart attack at his home here today.

He had been in failing health for several years.

Mr. Reilly had been a member of the state legislature since 1949.

A solemn high requiem Mass was held today in the Pelham Memorial Church.

Mr. Reilly's wife, also a former mayor of Pelham, attended the service.

Mr. Reilly was a member of the Republican party.

He had served in the state legislature since 1949.

He had been mayor of Pelham from 1949 to 1953.

Mr. Reilly's wife, also a former mayor of Pelham, attended the service.

Mr. Reilly was a member of the Republican party.