Consolidation Plan Proposed For Tarrytown

Editor Would Merge Greenburgh Districts into 2nd Class City

The consolidation plan proposed for Tarrytown would merge the Towns of Greenburgh and Tarrytown into a 2nd Class City. The proposal also includes the annexation of the Village of North Tarrytown. The purpose of the consolidation is to improve efficiency and avoid duplication of services. The plan has been endorsed by the Tarrytown Board of Supervisors and is currently being reviewed by the New York State Department of Labor. The proposal is expected to be submitted to the voters in the next election for final approval.
