CRITICAL and AMUSEMENTS

Kronenberger

Victorian Villainy
At the City Center

The revival of Angel Street at the City Center is, in the circumstanc- es, a quite adequate one. I say "in the circumstances" because a revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.

The City Center is, in the circumstances, from what the City Center pleads for extravagance, demands excitement. For though things go smoothly and professionally, they needlessly so. Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being con- siderably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the pres- ence of contact, and a deplorable lack of atmosphere, to the pres- ence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being con- siderably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the pres- ence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

The City Center was where else.

The revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.

The City Center is, in the circumstances, from what the City Center pleads for extravagance, demands excitement. For though things go smoothly and professionally, they needlessly so. Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being con- siderably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the presence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

The revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.

The City Center is, in the circumstances, from what the City Center pleads for extravagance, demands excitement. For though things go smoothly and professionally, they needlessly so. Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being considerably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the presence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

The revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.

The City Center is, in the circumstances, from what the City Center pleads for extravagance, demands excitement. For though things go smoothly and professionally, they needlessly so. Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being considerably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the presence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

The revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.

The City Center is, in the circumstances, from what the City Center pleads for extravagance, demands excitement. For though things go smoothly and professionally, they needlessly so. Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being considerably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the presence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

The revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.

The City Center is, in the circumstances, from what the City Center pleads for extravagance, demands excitement. For though things go smoothly and professionally, they needlessly so. Either Mr. Ferrer has a special hardness for being considerably busy, or it is of the opinion that City Center audiences have a need of atmosphere, to the presence of contact, and a deplorable sense of contact, and a deplorable

The revival of Angel Street would be anywhere else.