The Pelham Sun is a weekly newspaper circulating in the Town of Pelham, New York, including Pelham Manor, Pelham, Pelham Heights, and North Pelham.

January 13, 1933

FRED B. WRIGHT IS CHAIRMAN OF ADULT EDUCATION COMMITTEE

 council member appointed by the Board of Education to assume the chairmanship of the Adult Education Committee of the Pelham Education Association, as reported by the Secretary. Mr. Wright has been a member of the Committee since its organization. The following make up the membership of the Committee: Mr. Wright, chairman; Mrs. Henry E. Key, president; Mrs. Manning Stires, vice-president; Mrs. Thomas J. Calahan, secretary; and Mrs. Arthur T. Morris, treasurer.

State Solicitor General To Be Speaker At Town Meeting On Constitution

Henry Epstein will be included among speakers to discuss coming state constitutional government, as announced by Chairman of the Temporary Organization and Mr. Epstein's name was included in the announcement of the Temporary Organization. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 13th, at 6:30 p.m.

The Pelham Sun is a weekly newspaper circulating in the Town of Pelham, New York, including Pelham Manor, Pelham, Pelham Heights, and North Pelham.

January 13, 1933

GRAY AND ZELLER DESIGNATED BY NORTH PELHAM REPUBLICANS

Theo. J. Van Twick Heads Village Committee Again

Present incumbent was named on the Republican slate; Primary Election to be held on Feb. 23rd.

The regular Republican slate in New York State will be similar to that of two years ago. Last year the Republican Village and Advisory Committee met and designated Theodore Henry Zeller and William A. Gray as candidates for the first time in the history of the Village. The Village election will be held on Tuesday, March 16.

Democratic Meet on Tuesday Night

The New York Village specified the time and place of the election. The Democratic Committee will meet on Tuesday night when the Village Board is in session.

G. L. Sears is Elected to Vitagraph Co. Board

Pelham Man has been re-elected to the Vitagraph Company's board of directors, as announced by the company. Mr. Sears is the only Pelham representative on the board.

Marketers To Be Elected to Designate Route of Historic Split Rock Trail

New York City Park Department to follow program outlined by Town Historian William R. Montgomery.

The last of Pelham’s old antique Indian trails will be preserved. Town Historian William R. Montgomery, who has been working on the trails in Pelham, has outlined the program for the New York City Park Department. The town of Pelham has been offered a strip of land on the north side of the main road between Pelham and White Plains. The offer is for the purpose of maintaining the historic trail.

Table of Contents:
- Town Board Sees Light Benefit
- In Proposed Change in Refund of New York State Income Taxes
- "It Would Mean Nothing to Taxpayers," Says Divisive Village Attorney Miller; Points Out Benefits of Change to Colonial Committee
- Important Works to Construct Main Street Bridge
- This week’s edition of the Pelham Sun features a variety of articles and headlines, including updates on the Town Board, the Village Committee, and local events such as the Adult Education Committee meeting and the Adult Education Committee's plans for an Adult Education program in the town. There are also mentions of local residents and community events, such as the Pelham Man's election to the Vitagraph Company's board of directors and the proposed change in refund of New York State income taxes.