Warner Baxter Dies at 62; Original Film "Cisco Kid"

Beverly Hills, Calif.—(AP)—Warner Baxter, noted stage and screen actor, has died at his home here. He is 62.

For years he had suffered from cancer of the salivary gland, from which he was operated on 23 years ago. He was also said to have been suffering from some form of diabetes.

Baxter began his stage and screen career in 1908 and was a prominent figure on the stage. He had appeared in many motion pictures.

Nicholas A. Denn to Be Honored by Legion Post

MRS. CLARK CRAWFORD, a resident of Albany, is being honored by a special program which will be presented by the American Legion Post 139 at 3 p.m. today.

Mrs. Crawford is the widow of the late Edward L. Crawford, who was a member of Post 139 for many years.

The program will include music by the American Legion Post 139 band, a speech by the post commander, and a presentation of a post flag to Mrs. Crawford.

Vega Caravan Sets Election

Vega Caravan, Order of the All, has been organized and will be in operation at 7 a.m. today, according to its members.

The order, composed of men, women, and children, will be under the direction of President H. W. White, who will be in charge.

The order will be used to support the supreme convention next August in Honolulu.

Walt Disney World

Walt Disney World, the largest entertainment complex in the world, opened today.

The complex, which is located on 25,000 acres in central Florida, features a variety of attractions, including theme parks, hotels, resorts, and retail outlets.

The opening day of Walt Disney World was marked by a massive celebration that included fireworks, parades, and performances by famous musicians and actors.