Queens General Hospital Will Be Dedicated October 30
Institution Built At Cost
Of $4,569,693; Boro, City
Officials Will Attend

Dr. S. S. Goldwater Will Act As Chairman Of Committee To Speak, Expect Crowd Of 2,000 At Out-Door Program; Band To Give Concert

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore Residents On Staff

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Four miniature revues interspersed throughout the evening.

The 1935 Ford automobile furnished by Colonel Smith, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, will be used for the dedication.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-

Dedicated To Relief Of Humanity

The new Queens General Hospital in Flushing will be dedicated October 30 with ceremonies to be conducted in the evening. The institution, which will be built on the site of the old Flushing Hospital, will be dedicated by Dr. S. S. Goldwater, chairman of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The hospital will be located on the southwest corner of 78th street and 42nd avenue, and will be known as the new Queens General Hospital.

North Shore residents on the staff of the new hospital include: Dr. William H. Murray, chairman of the board of directors; Dr. Frank Weiss, stationery clerk; Mrs. Anna Waayers, executive secretary; Mrs. Eliza-