Pinehurst Breaks New Record

The course record was broken on the second day of the 1937 Pinehurst Open, Monday. The new record of 69 was turned in by Bill L. M. McElroy, 31, of Pinehurst, N.C., and was 1 under par for the day. His par for the day was 70. The new record is two shots better than the old one of 71, set by Jack Doyne in 1936. McElroy, who won the 1935 title, had missed the cut for the Open last year, and Monday was his first time on the stage. He was tied for 27th place after the first round, 1 over par, and set out Monday for a fresh start. The new record will stand until Monday, when the Open is to be held.
