Area Obituaries

Mrs. MARY ASHLOCK, 94, of 2110 Hill Street, Endicott, died at 1:45 a.m. at Endicott Home. She was the third of four children of William and Mary (Mills) Ashlock. She was a member of the First Methodist Church of Endicott; a member of the Endicott Woman's Club, also past president of the Emmett Walbridge Auxiliary of the Woman's Club of Endicott; and a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, of Endicott. She was a member of the Women's Board of Directors of Endicott Hospital, where she served for 55 years. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, for the reception to be held from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. ANNA NICEKIN and Mrs. William B. Dorrance, both of Endicott, died yesterday afternoon at Waverly Hospital. They were the former occupants of the Endicott Shoe Co. Home, 25 South Water Street, Endicott, and were employed there for many years prior to their retirement in 1956. They were members of the First United Methodist Church of Endicott. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 7 a.m.-noon, 1-4 p.m., and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. VERA R. YRKEN of Endicott, died early yesterday morning at Waverly Hospital. She was the only surviving child of the late James and Emma Yrken. She was a past member of the Endicott Woman's Club. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, where she taught Sunday School for many years. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 9 a.m.-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. NELLIE K. MILLER, 89, of Endicott, died early yesterday afternoon at Endicott Hospital. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Endicott, where she taught Sunday School for many years. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, of Endicott; and a member of the Endicott Woman's Club, where she was a member for 40 years. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 7 a.m.-noon, 1-4 p.m., and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. JOSEPH N. SCHRADER and Mrs. William J. Schrader, of Endicott, died early yesterday afternoon at Waverly Hospital. They were the former occupants of the Endicott Shoe Co. Home, 25 South Water Street, Endicott, and were employed there for many years prior to their retirement in 1956. They were members of the First United Methodist Church of Endicott. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 7 a.m.-noon, 1-4 p.m., and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. VERA R. YRKEN of Endicott, died early yesterday morning at Waverly Hospital. She was the only surviving child of the late James and Emma Yrken. She was a past member of the Endicott Woman's Club. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, where she taught Sunday School for many years. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 9 a.m.-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. NELLIE K. MILLER, 89, of Endicott, died early yesterday afternoon at Endicott Hospital. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Endicott, where she taught Sunday School for many years. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, of Endicott; and a member of the Endicott Woman's Club, where she was a member for 40 years. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 7 a.m.-noon, 1-4 p.m., and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. JOSEPH N. SCHRADER and Mrs. William J. Schrader, of Endicott, died early yesterday afternoon at Waverly Hospital. They were the former occupants of the Endicott Shoe Co. Home, 25 South Water Street, Endicott, and were employed there for many years prior to their retirement in 1956. They were members of the First United Methodist Church of Endicott. The body was moved to the Leonard Funeral Home, 242 West Jersey Street, Endicott, where friends may call 7 a.m.-noon, 1-4 p.m., and 7-9 p.m.