\begin{itemize}
  \item Barbara's Life and Business Record
  \begin{itemize}
    \item Joseph Burcha, Sr., who wrestlers extensively, drives a Cadillac and smokes gold cigars, is a man who wants to be known as a skillful businessman. He was born in Castama, Sicily.

    \item He came to the United States in 1907. Mr. Burcha later moved to Endicott, where he became an Eat's delivery boy. In 1929, Mr. Burcha went to work for DeFello's Endicott plant. On May 13, 1934, Barbara married Joseph Burcha at St. Athanasius Church, Endicott. Their marriage was blessed with three children: Joseph Jr., John, and Barbara.

    \item Barbara was a hardworking woman who contributed significantly to her family's success. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her contribution to the family business cannot be overstated.

    \item Barbara was an active member of the community, serving on various boards and committees. She was an advocate for women's rights and education, and her influence extended beyond her immediate family.

    \item Barbara's legacy lives on through her children, who carry on her tradition of hard work and dedication. Her contributions to the community and her family continue to inspire those who knew her.
  \end{itemize}

\end{itemize}