BINGHAMTON PRESS Sheriff's Police Report

Friday, Nov. 15, 1957

AFLCIO Suspends Bakery Union

Washington—The AFLCIO Bakery Union here has filed charges of misconduct against Binghamton, New York, and listed certain specific actions which it said were taken against the union.

Obituaries

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

The funeral of Mrs. Leonard H. Hedick, 90, was held Sunday at Maple Lawn Cemetery, Binghamton. Mrs. Hedick had been a resident of Binghamton since 1903 and was a member of the First Reformed Church. She leaves a son, George E. Hedick, Binghamton; two daughters, Mrs. Philip Scholderer, Binghamton, and Mrs. John Scholta, Johnson City; two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Engle, Binghamton, and Mrs. Emily Schwab, Johnson City; four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City; and four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City.

AFLCIO Suspends Bakery Union

Washington—The AFLCIO Bakery Union has filed charges of misconduct against Binghamton, New York, and listed certain specific actions which it said were taken against the union.

Obituaries

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

The funeral of Mrs. Leonard H. Hedick, 90, was held Sunday at Maple Lawn Cemetery, Binghamton. Mrs. Hedick had been a resident of Binghamton since 1903 and was a member of the First Reformed Church. She leaves a son, George E. Hedick, Binghamton; two daughters, Mrs. Philip Scholderer, Binghamton, and Mrs. John Scholta, Johnson City; two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Engle, Binghamton, and Mrs. Emily Schwab, Johnson City; four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City; and four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City.

AFLCIO Suspends Bakery Union

Washington—The AFLCIO Bakery Union has filed charges of misconduct against Binghamton, New York, and listed certain specific actions which it said were taken against the union.

Obituaries

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

The funeral of Mrs. Leonard H. Hedick, 90, was held Sunday at Maple Lawn Cemetery, Binghamton. Mrs. Hedick had been a resident of Binghamton since 1903 and was a member of the First Reformed Church. She leaves a son, George E. Hedick, Binghamton; two daughters, Mrs. Philip Scholderer, Binghamton, and Mrs. John Scholta, Johnson City; two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Engle, Binghamton, and Mrs. Emily Schwab, Johnson City; four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City; and four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City.

AFLCIO Suspends Bakery Union

Washington—The AFLCIO Bakery Union has filed charges of misconduct against Binghamton, New York, and listed certain specific actions which it said were taken against the union.

Obituaries

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

The funeral of Mrs. Leonard H. Hedick, 90, was held Sunday at Maple Lawn Cemetery, Binghamton. Mrs. Hedick had been a resident of Binghamton since 1903 and was a member of the First Reformed Church. She leaves a son, George E. Hedick, Binghamton; two daughters, Mrs. Philip Scholderer, Binghamton, and Mrs. John Scholta, Johnson City; two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Engle, Binghamton, and Mrs. Emily Schwab, Johnson City; four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City; and four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Binghamton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedick, Johnson City.