New York, Oct. 29—Highways of the future will be highway tunnels and the story of the Vehicular Tunnel to that of the Holland Tunnel.

The tunnel is 9,250 feet long—1,500 feet longer than the Holland Tunnel, and 400 feet wider—90 feet in diameter, or two stories in height. It will include a motor road, a pedestrian walk, and a broad platform.

The tunnel is to be opened on November 8, in a ceremony of which Mrs. Roosevelt, President Roosevelt, and Mrs. Filene were present.

The Vehicular Tunnel will be opened by President Roosevelt, and the Holland Tunnel by Mrs. Roosevelt, President Roosevelt, and Mrs. Filene.
