Society News and Notes of General Interest to Women Readers of Nassau County

Miss Proctor Married in Garden City

Is The Bride Of Daniel Francis Sullivan, Jr.

Miss Virginia Campbell Proctor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Proctor of Garden City, was married on January 10, 1941, to Daniel Francis Sullivan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Sullivan of Hempstead. The ceremony took place in the Garden City Country Club, Garden City, with Rev. Edward C. McQuaig officiating.

The bride wore a white silk wedding gown with lace trim which she had designed herself. She was seen with her brother, Charles Sullivan, who was her best man, and ticket master. The maid of honor was Miss Elinor Sullivan, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Sullivan, Miss Joan Sullivan, and Miss Beverly Sullivan, all of Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will reside in Hempstead, where they will be associated with the Mutual Broadcasting System.

Garden City Country Club Holds Dance

Hempstead Goll Club Also Has Entertainment

The Garden City Country Club held a dance last night for the members and their guests. The dance was sponsored by the Hempstead Goll Club, which has been working for several weeks to provide an entertainment for the members of the club. The dance was held in the clubhouse and featured a dance orchestra.

Miss Eugenie Snowden Is a Bride

Rev. McManus Conducts Rites At Garden City

Miss Eugenie Deleva Snowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Deleva, of Garden City, on January 10, 1941, was married to John McManus, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McManus, of Garden City. Rev. Edward C. McQuaig conducted the wedding ceremony.

The bride wore a white silk wedding gown with lace trim and a veil reaching to her ankles. The groom was seen with his brother, John McManus, who was his best man, and ticket master. The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth McManus, sister of the groom, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret McManus, Miss Joan McManus, and Miss Beverly McManus, all of Garden City.

Miss Eugenie Deleva Snowden, who is a graduate of Washington High School, and Mr. John McManus, who is a member of the Garden City Country Club, were married on January 10, 1941, at the Garden City Country Club. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Edward C. McQuaig.

Miss Mary Thomas Wed in Virginia

Miss Mary Thomas was married in Virginia on January 10, 1941, to Mr. John M. P. Thatcher. The couple was married in a ceremony at the Garden City Country Club, Garden City, with Rev. Edward C. McQuaig officiating.

The bride wore a white silk wedding gown with lace trim and a veil reaching to her ankles. The groom was seen with his brother, Mr. John M. P. Thatcher, who was his best man, and ticket master. The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Thatcher, sister of the groom, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Thatcher, Miss Joan Thatcher, and Miss Beverly Thatcher, all of Garden City.

Don't Miss This Important Event

If you missed the Garden City Country Club's Annual Dinner Dance on January 10, 1941, you missed a great event! The dance was held in the clubhouse and featured a dance orchestra. The committee in charge of arrangements was headed by Mrs. Andrew M. Bauer of Garden City, and the feature of the evening was the new quota of the Garden City Country Club, which has been working for several weeks to provide an entertainment for the members of the club.

The dance was held in the clubhouse and featured a dance orchestra. The committee in charge of arrangements was headed by Mrs. Andrew M. Bauer of Garden City, and the feature of the evening was the new quota of the Garden City Country Club, which has been working for several weeks to provide an entertainment for the members of the club.

Choral Head

Miss Mary Thomas Wed in Virginia

Don't Miss This Important Event

If you missed the Garden City Country Club's Annual Dinner Dance on January 10, 1941, you missed a great event! The dance was held in the clubhouse and featured a dance orchestra. The committee in charge of arrangements was headed by Mrs. Andrew M. Bauer of Garden City, and the feature of the evening was the new quota of the Garden City Country Club, which has been working for several weeks to provide an entertainment for the members of the club.

The dance was held in the clubhouse and featured a dance orchestra. The committee in charge of arrangements was headed by Mrs. Andrew M. Bauer of Garden City, and the feature of the evening was the new quota of the Garden City Country Club, which has been working for several weeks to provide an entertainment for the members of the club.

COUNTY FEDERAL

SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION

40 FRONT STREET

ROCKVILLE CENTRE