MAJOR RECEIVES SOLDIER'S MEDAL

Henry Gally, Jr., Honored For Action At Crash

At Motobu

Major Henry Gally, Jr., of 39 Brisbane road, Garden City, was honored at home after having received his honorable discharge from the U.S. army, holds the Soldier's Medal for action at Motobu, Okinawa, on December 24th.

Transport, Bomber Crash

The major's valiant act and the medal were announced by the citation as follows:

"Major Gally was a co-pilot pilot on the Motobu airdrome when the enemy's anti-aircraft battery opened fire. He quickly ordered his crew to bale out, and, after 20 minutes, the major, believing the bomber would crash, ordered the crew to jump. Just before the bomber crashed, the major bailed out, but was trapped by the airplane's rear end which cut him off from his parachute. He was flung to the ground for 90 feet before the crash, and was immediately captured."

A New Cope

The major received the medal from Secretary of War Stimson when the latter visited the dedication of the Memorial National Cemetery at Motobu airdrome in the summer of the year. He was awarded four battle participations for his service with the army, he was superintendent of the Bellmore railway station, and was stationed on a communications ship at Norfolk, Va., where he has been dubbing "Honest Abe." The master's heroism is described by the major as follows:

"In the summer of the year, the enemy was retreating from traditional areas. The major was placed in command of a small unit, and was ordered to destroy a large number of enemy positions. After a series of successful missions, the major was awarded the Bronze Star Medal in recognition of his extraordinary service.

During the service at his church, Nassau Daily Review-erac photograph shows the Rev. Dr. William H. Stewart, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist church of Rockville Centre, being shown reading the prayers during the service.
