HELP CIVIL DEFENSE — Girl Scout members in Pennsylvania's fourth and fifth grade divisions will participate in national civil defense week activities. Pictured are members of the L.W. Bills School 7th grade home room of Miss Bertina Brantley, left to right, Brenda Kopp, Paula Sichert and Julie Tasker.

RUTH HJORTH, ROBERT KOPP WED AT ILION

ILION — At a double ring ceremony performed at St. Mary’s of the Assumption Catholic Church, Miss Ruth Hjorth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Hjorth, was married to Robert Kopp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kopp, both of Bigelow Street, this village, Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Charles Swenson, administrator of St. Mary’s of the Assumption Catholic Church.

Miss Hjorth, who is a graduate of Richfield College, Beaver Falls, Pa., and who is a graduate of the Adelphi College of Philadelphia, was accompanied by her father, who was an importer of Swedish goods. Her mother was the first sister to attend Adelphi College.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Sigvald Hjorth, was given in marriage by her father.

The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Kopp, Miss Claire Hjorth, Miss Marie Hjorth, and Mrs. Rudi Hjorth. The best man was Robert Kopp, Jr., of this village, and the groomsman was Sigvald Hjorth.

A reception was held at the home of the bride in the evening.

SUN:TURDAY, AFTON

After passing under the rainbow in the early afternoon, the sky turned a deep blue for a few moments. The rainbow was seen in the northern sky. (Photo Staff)

John Nelligan Wins Parade from Prison

John A. Nelligan, a former inmate at the Otisville Penitentiary, was paroled Wednesday morning and won the Westminster parade. He was arrested for larceny on Oct. 12, 1957, in the Westminster area and was sentenced to five years in the prison. He had served three years, nine months and five days when he was paroled. He said he would return to the prison at a later date. (Photo Staff)

Nelligan was transferred to Wallkill, a store correctional, for the remainder of the term of his sentence. He returns to the prison when his term is up.

Power Break Darkens Area Outside Mohawk

A power failure disrupted traffic in the Mohawk area Monday evening. As a result of the power failure a number of traffic signals were knocked out.

John Tiedman Dies. Delphine Farmer

DECOVILLE — John Tiedman, a farmer, died yesterday in Little Falls Hospital after a prolonged illness.

He was born on Jan. 30, 1896, the son of John and Emma Tiedman. He died in 1917.

William V. Tiedman, a farmer, and his son, John, are the immediate survivors.

Newspaper Women's Club Holds Christmas Party

The newspaper women's club of New York held a Christmas party at the Hotel Statler Thursday night.

The ladies were entertained by M. E. Talley, who read a Christmas story. Miss Talley is a member of the club.

Mrs. James A. Michael, the club's president; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Scott, the first vice president; Mrs. Helen M. Keeler, the second vice president; and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Scott, the secretary, are the officers.

The club was organized in 1926 by Mrs. A. W. MacMurray, who was the first president.

Valley Junior High Elects

NEWARK — William H. Hostetter was elected president of the Junior High, Junior Class, at the Senior Class on Thursday night.

Other officers elected were: Vice president, Dr. Robert Walter; business manager, Dr. William Martin; treasurer, Dr. John P. Harkrader; and librarian, Dr. George F. Connelly.

Member of New York City Council

H. V. E. Hamilton, member of the New York City Council from the 10th Ward, was in this village Thursday, visiting relatives. Mr. Hamilton is a member of the New York City Council.

Lucy Recks — Among prize winners in the Ilion deer contest was Harry Couchman shown in top picture receiving $5,000 check from C. A. Fink, one of the sponsors, as Ben Stuber, owner of the Ilion Hardware store where the bucks were watched and displayed looks on. The biggest buck, a 210 pounder, shot by Nicholas Elumen, Deposit, is shown in left to the R. W. Caillet, Ilion, who entered the smallest buck, worth $500, is shown at right with his $40 prize winner. (Staff Photo)