Corinna Creating New Career In Art World

By JAMES BACON

The entertainer Corinna Calvet, who has enjoyed an enviable career in Hollywood, now is turning her attention to another field. She is working on a book that will be published this fall. The book will tell the story of her life, including her early days in France and her experiences in the film industry. Corinna is also working on a painting that she plans to sell at an exhibition next month. She says she is enjoying her new career and is looking forward to the future.

W. Germans Finally Learn Who Done It

BERLIN (AP) - The entourage of West Germany's new foreign minister, Hans-Dietrich Genscher, has arrived in Berlin after a long search. The minister was last seen in the company of the former chancellor, Helmut Kohl, who was captured by the German police earlier today.
