Suburban Kirkwood Residents Are Homebuilders

Two YW Girls Out of 78

By HARRY A. WEBBER

Whistle Blowing

Mrs. Harry A. Webber is one of Kirkwood's show places. Top center: Cliff leader George Davis Jr. bows at 211 Kirk Avenue in this attractive residence. At far right lives Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gates at 5 Norton Place. Bottom row left: Fred and Margaret Tierce beautifully landscaped home at 2 Norton Place. Center: Youngsters in Kirkwood find their ABC's at the Booker Washington Elementary School at 540 Adams Street, and at nagatives P. Brown and Mrs. Ethel Morton find Norton Place very comfortable.

Minority Group Numbers 1,200; Little Friction

By GLADYS GRAY JONES

JEFFERSON CITY—Organizations supporting particular groups of Negroes in the State Capitol area now have their work cut out for them. The groups are not large, but the race situation is still tense and a long time in repairing.

REMEMBER: Christmas Is On Dec. 24

Applicant Shortage for CSC Examinations

The examination for Clerk CAP, 1 and 2, at salaries of $750 and $875 respectively, will start at 9 a.m. today at the Federal Civil Service office in the St. Louis post office.

SUBURBAN SOCIETY

By GLADYS GRAY JONES

At the request of the Leadership Group, Varsity Club for Women, the society group of the club and the Woman's Club, a meeting was held last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. John W. String, 1150 Orchard Avenue, to discuss the plan of the society for the year 1943-44.

JEFFERSON CITY — Organizations supporting particular groups of Negroes in the State Capitol area now have their work cut out for them. The groups are not large, but the race situation is still tense and a long time in repairing.

OUR TOWN—St. Louis

Around this time of the year with all the parties, balls, and the girl who is a perfect lady, I like to paint my nails the color of my eye. I have a friend who is a perfect lady and I have a friend who is a perfect lady and I have a friend who is a perfect lady. It's a perfect lady.

MISSIONARY RETURNS—Miss Curtis Drake, former teacher, views the country which she brought home on a visit to St. Louis after the completion of her missionary service in Alexandria, Egypt. -Robinson Photo

FOOD FROM THE MARSH

Two young women have been quite busy in the past month. They have been busy making Christmas gifts for their friends and families. They have been busy making Christmas gifts for their friends and families. They have been busy making Christmas gifts for their friends and families. They have been busy making Christmas gifts for their friends and families. They have been busy making Christmas gifts for their friends and families. They have been busy making Christmas gifts for their friends and families.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club of the University of Missouri will hold its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. John W. String, 1150 Orchard Avenue, at 8 p.m. on Dec. 24. The club has invited the entire community to attend the party.

JEFFERSON CITY — Organizations supporting particular groups of Negroes in the State Capitol area now have their work cut out for them. The groups are not large, but the race situation is still tense and a long time in repairing.