Rome was host Tuesday in the annual event of the Retired Teachers Association of Rome. The event took place at the Rome Central School, and was attended by a large number of retired teachers.

Nellie Lies, Director of the Madison Zone; and Mrs. Florence Leach, legislative committee, and Mrs. Ariene Santis. Piano accompanists were Nancy Yakohiszyn and James Decker.

"A forms of music and literature," said Mrs. Lewis, "were very much enjoyed by all who attended the event. The music was performed by the Rome Central High School Choir, under the direction of William Albers.

The annual event of the Retired Teachers Association of Rome is held each year to bring together retired teachers from the area. The event includes music, literature, and socializing.

The Retired Teachers Association of Rome is an organization that is dedicated to the education of the community. The association is made up of retired teachers who have dedicated their lives to education.

The event on Tuesday was a great success, and the attendees were all very pleased with the performance of the Rome Central High School Choir.