The Too much was too much. His co-workers, emperors and supermen did not want to have another gap, and they finally decided that the best way to deal with their problem was to replace the old man. They did this by making him a slave to society.

Our story starts here. We meet a new character named Mr. Smith. He is a skilled mathematician who has been hired by the government to work on a top-secret project. This project is aimed at developing a new weapon that can destroy any other civilization.

Mr. Smith works hard for months, but he eventually realizes that his work is not worthy. He decides to use his knowledge to help others rather than harm them.

Despite the government's efforts to prevent Mr. Smith from leaving his job, he manages to escape and join a group of freedom fighters. Together, they plan to overthrow the government and establish a new society where everyone will have equal rights.

The story continues as Mr. Smith and his allies struggle against the government's forces. They use their knowledge and skills to outsmart the government and eventually succeed in overthrowing it.

The story ends with Mr. Smith becoming the new leader of the society, and the rest of the story is about how he works to build a better future for everyone.

The End.
