Mrs. Rose DiFabio Hohn

BYRICE — Mrs. Rose DiFabio Hohn, 76, of Utica, right now.

She was born in Utica, a daughter of the late Frank and Mary (Scalzo) DiFabio.

Surviving her are a brother, Anthony DiFabio of Syracuse; five sisters, Theresa (Bennett) Gary, Frankie (Hunt) Moore of Utica; five brothers, Joseph (Barella) DiFabio of Camden, S.C., and Mrs. James (Francisco) DiFabio of Syracuse, Paul (Schmidt) DiFabio of Verona, N.Y., and Sam (Conover) DiFabio of Talladega, Ala.

Friends may call on Thursday, July 19, after 7 p.m. at the Harry Northrup Jr. Funeral Home, 801 Court St., Utica. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered Monday, July 23, at 10 a.m. at St. Mary's Church, Clinton, with burial in West Schuyler Cemetery. Please consider doing a Good Turn for someone in need.

Mrs. Joseph J. Talarico

NORTH UTICA — Carlton W. Burdick, 80, right now.

He was born in Utica, the son of the late Frank and Mary (McNamara) Burdick.

Serving as a Supervisor, retiring in 1971. He was a member of the SchuylerSenior Citizens Center, a 40-year member of the American Legion, a charter member of the Schuyler Elks Club and the Franklin Reformed Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elmo (Bennett) Burdick; two daughters, Mrs. Edith (Bennett) Conover of Remsen in 1946, where they operated the Bennett Conover Funeral Service for 14 years.

Remembrance services for Mr. Pertz will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at the Shrub Oak Cemetery, Clinton. Visitation will be Wednesday 2-4 and 7-9 at the Funeral Home. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered Friday morning at 9:30 from St. Mary's Church, Clinton, with burial in West Schuyler Cemetery.